Ecoprinting is contact printing with silk and leaves. The supplies are simple but the process is more complicated. The variations are endless. That's what makes it so much fun.

Silk Painting is drawing or manipulating dye on a silk substrate. Designs are simple. The challenge is to control the dye. Success does not always depend on achieving that goal!

Batik is the ancient art of putting wax (the resist) on cloth in a pattern and dyeing the cloth different colors. The method for this class is an American adaptation of the classic "dip and drip."
