

Presented by Artful Dimensions Gallery

Lee Darter

Scrappy Creatures

Saturday April 18: 2 Sessions available!

10am-1pm & 2pm-5pm

15 spots available per workshop

Student cost: $20

For this workshop, Lee will provide all materials! Everything is included in the class fee

What students could bring: Students can bring a wire coat hanger, LOTS of plastic shopping bags, and any buttons or ribbon they have at home they might like to add to their scrappy creature. However, these things are not a necessary to bring.

For more information or to pay, choose Workshops tab at: www.artfuldimensionsgallery.com

Lee Darter is an art teacher in Prince William County Virginia at Cedar Point Elementary. This is her 9th in the Virginia area. Lee has been teaching in public schools for 15 years before that she taught at City Art Works, a non-profit in Houston, Texas. Lee also currently teaches at the Center for the Arts in Manassas, VA., the Workhouse in Lorton, VA and Scrap, RVA in Richmond, VA. She is the current teacher of the year at Cedar Point, Northern Virginia Elementary teacher of the year in 2016 and teacher of the year at Thornwood elementary in 2006. She loves all things fiber art, bookbinding, weaving, felting, painting and jewelry making. She lives in Northern Virginia with her ARMY soldier husband and her adopted fur baby, Rex.